Iowa State Dance Marathon is a yearlong student-run philanthropy that seeks to provide funds and awareness for kids treated at the University of Iowa Children’s Hospital by uniting students, faculty, families, and the community in fighting for the next generation.

Students who are involved in Iowa State Dance Marathon seek to achieve this mission through programs that enhance the student experience; establish relationships between fellow Cyclones, the university, and community members; and cultivate a lifelong commitment to service and philanthropy.